

Summer Book Report

Title:

Author:

Setting:

Choose one of the main characters in this selection. Identify the character and cite traits and a physical description of this character. What makes this character memorable?

Give one specific incident in this piece of literature which shows one of the character traits of this person.

Identify a major conflict in this work and tell about it. Was this conflict internal or external?

What is a major theme running through the selection?

Cite an example (be specific) proving this theme in this piece of literature.

If you could recommend this book to anyone, what type of person might enjoy this selection of literature and why?

Write a 3 – 5 paragraph summary of the book.