

DBCS ART DEPARTMENT – Brief history

School year	Activity / Achievement
1997-1998	Mrs. Busan volunteers to teach drawing for the 5 th grade DBCS student wins Best in Show – ACSI Elementary Art Show
1998-1999	Elementary art program begins at DBCS DBCS student runner-up in VA Arbor Day art contest
1999-2000	High school elective art program begins First of many Fine Arts Nights held at Denbigh Metro High School Art Competition – DBCS First place winners
2000-2001	Metro HS Competition
2001-2002	Middle school elective art program begins New art room! (moved from cafeteria to third floor Brewin) Metro HS Competition
2002-2003	AP Art class elective begins Metro HS Competition
2003-2004	Metro HS Competition – DBCS hosts
2004-2005	Art students build décor for Homecoming set (castles) Metro HS Competition – DBCS hosts
2005-2006	Metro HS Competition
2006-2007	Metro HS Competition Begin creating art work in conjunction with DBC Missions Conference (This will continue to the present.) Prints of student artwork sold at DBCS Art Show – part of money collected donated to the Peninsula Rescue Mission

- 2007-2008 Metro HS Competition – DBCS winner Best in Show
Prints of student artwork sold at DBCS Art Show – part of money collected donated to the Peninsula Rescue Mission
- 2008-2009 Metro HS Competition – DBCS winner Best in Show
Prints of student artwork sold at DBCS Art Show – part of money
collected donated to the Blood Water Mission
- 2009-2010 Metro HS Competition – DBCS winner Best in Show
- 2012-2013 Art Guild established – online auction for artworks produced Money donated to the Wounded Warrior Program.
- 2013-2014 Art Guild creates giant bottle cap mosaic – DBCS Minuteman

This brief history does not include all of the DBCS art shows and field trips.

1/12/14

R. Busan